Welcome to NeighborWorks Faculty-Led Online Course!

ML120vc Strategic Thinking and Planning is a faculty-led four-week online course. The course officially starts Wednesday, April 17 and concludes on Tuesday, April 14, 2019. Course weeks will run on a Wednesday through Tuesday schedule.

Once you register for the course, we encourage you to begin familiarizing yourself with the course by logging in and reviewing the introductory activities. These activities and resources will explain how to navigate the Faculty-led Classroom and share more information about the course schedule and expectations. With these introductory activities complete, you'll be more than ready to begin the course.

Course Schedule & Activities

The activities for this course are organized on a weekly basis, with each week consisting of one unit or topic. The due dates for all activities within a unit are posted in the instructions. The course features a course calendar which displays upcoming due dates for all activities. Generally, you will find the following activities week to week throughout the course.

- Weekly "Live" Sessions each week you will have the opportunity to attend a live web conference session facilitated by your faculty.
- Lessons weekly lessons are self-paced and are the primary mechanism for relating the course material to you in the classroom.
- Discussion Forums Each week includes discussion forum activities related to the topics being presented.
- Homework Assignments Each week includes a homework assignment for practical application of the course materials that is turned into the instructor.
- Quizzes Each week features a quiz of 10-15 questions that is used to test the knowledge you have acquired through the lesson and related activities.

Course Expectations

NeighborWorks has developed the Faculty-led Online Classroom to provide a platform for learners to acquire knowledge and enhance their professional development. Each week you are expected to:

- review the lesson material
- participate in discussion forums and other collaborative activities, as directed
- ask questions of your faculty and peers
- share your experience and knowledge
- schedule your time accordingly to complete all required activities within the deadlines provided

NOTE: Participants must complete all required activities and assignments in a satisfactory manner in order to receive their certificate of completion. Upon completion your transcript will show the course title, however no data will appear under the "passed?" or "grade" columns on your transcript. If the course is not passed successfully it will NOT appear on your transcript.

Cancellation Policy

Should you wish to cancel prior to the course start date, you must use the "cancel" button on the Faculty-led Online Classroom registration page after logging in to the online registration system.

Cancellation made at least 7 business days in advance of the course start date will receive a full refund. Cancellation made within 7 business days of the course start date will be provided a refund less a $100 cancellation fee. Once the course has started no refunds will be given. You will receive confirmation of your cancellation within 2 business days.

Course Grade Matrix

This course grade matrix provides you with a reference of graded activities in the course and their deadlines. A minimum score of 80 is required to pass the course. The course grade matrix will be provided in the course site.
